Worldwide emergency travel assistance services start with one call.¹ When traveling for business or pleasure, in a foreign country or just 100 miles from home, you and your family can count on getting help in the event of a medical emergency.²

Around-the-clock help, when you need it

- guaranteed hospital admission³
- emergency medical evacuation to medical facility
- medically supervised return travel to your home
- transportation for a friend/relative if you are alone and expect to be hospitalized more than seven days
- prescription replacement
- medical consultation and evaluation
- medical referrals to Western-trained, English-speaking medical providers
- care and transport of unattended minor children

For more information on conditions and exclusions ask your HR department for a copy of your company's service certificate.

For trips over 90 days, expatriate coverage is available. Call the number provided for more information.
